The hold that the Roman Catholic hierarchy had acquired in the public institutions of Chicago, before opposition was awakened, is illustrated by a text book that has been approved and is in general use throughout the schools of that city and the state. This book is entitled "A Civic Manual for Chicago and Cook County," of which S. B. Winchell is the author, and the A. Flannigan Co. is the publisher.

In the section of this school book devoted to "Leading Institutions, Associa-tions, etc.," particular pains are taken to magnify the Roman Catholic church and its various branches; but all the Protestant churches are most carefully and totally ignored.

On page 131 it calls attention to the bers, 198 parochial schools with 92,000 pupils, 22 academies for girls with 5,100 students, plus colleges, academies, asy-lums, homes for the aged, etc., all with particularity calculated to impress the ence. pupil in the public school with the bigness and importance of papal institu-

How it Happened

Those who read, in last week's Mxs. acc, the article in regard to Home's interference in Ohio politics, and how copies of a Roman Catholic paper, together with a political circular, were mailed to Cincinnati, O., in the franked envelope of a congressmen—may naturally wonder why such documents were sent by a Roman Catholic editor to a Protestant minister.

We wondered as much ourselves, at DR. F. W. WILLARD,

We wondered as much ourselves, at first; and, after we had answered the question to our own satisfaction, failed to add those findings to the original story. For that reason we will now tell what we know about it and what we think about it.

By reference to last week's MENACE you will note that the address on the envelope reads "Rev. Rector, 6104 Des-mond St., Cincinnati, Ohio." Had the dress upon it, it would have been received by the Roman Catholic priest Joseph A. Meyer who lives there and is rector of St. Anthony's Church in Manager 19 Manager 1 isonville as well as of a Roman Catholic school at 5122 Chandler St.

Instead of being delivered to the priest who is a rector by title, the post- No office delivered the package to the Protestant minister who is Harry F. Rector by name and lives at 6102 Conover St. It is evident that Mr. Rector did not notice the discrepancy in the address; ourselves. However, that fact SERVES ONLY TO SHOW THAT THE VI-ONLY TO SHOW THAT THE VI-CIOUS MATTER CONTAINED IN THAT PACKAGE WAS PROBABLY PREPARED FOR EXCLUSIVE CIR-CULATION AMONG ROMAN CATH-OLIC PRIESTS AND PAPAL AGENTS IN OHIO.

The papist politician in Washington relied upon that portion of the address relating to street and number to take it to the Romish rector at his rectory in Desmond street, while the postman, being more familiar, perhaps, with the Rev. Rector delivered it at his residence. This could be the more casily done from the similarity in the numbers 6104 and 6102. The discovery of this fact soggests the

not unreasonable supposition that the BARGAINS IN MAGAZINES—Following magazines may be following:
